John - ny Jones en - list - ed in this war of Lib - er - ty, And John - ny in the trench - es got a box the oth - er day, And p ev - 'ry place that John - ny went, This sight he'd al - ways see; The in that box a pair of sox were neat - ly packed a - way All girls were knit - ting things for boys all fight - ing in the fray, When a wrapped in tis - sue pap - er and with rib - bons on them too, John - ny sweet girl he'd see knit - ting Young John - ny Jones would say.
Jones was dis - ap - point - ed When he found they would - n't do.

I won-der who's knit-ting for me
I won-der who's knit-ting for me
I won-der just who she can be?
I won-der just who she can be?

Now I won-der if she's tall
She must think I'm big and tall I won-der if she's small?
she does-n't know I'm small,
I'd love her, I'd love her, Why No mat - ter, No mat - ter, I'll for her I would fall wear them af - ter all Its com-fort - ing I'd like to thank you must ad - mit,
her for the hose,
To They're
know that she's do - ing her bit big - ger than my un - der - clothes Knit, knit, knit, the girls are Knit, knit, knit, the girls are
